

If I could be a man

What would you do if you could be the opposite sex? I'm a woman and I'm very happy to be born a woman. But if I could be a man, I'd have many things I could do.

First, I could develop my muscles by doing exercises. I like muscles, but now I can't develop my muscles so much. After all, a man's muscles are stronger than a woman's. After developing my muscles, I would assume a cool pose and watch my perfect body in the mirror and be satisfied.

Second, I could belong to the basketball club and make cool shots and fascinate so many girls! And I would pick up the pretty girls and play around. If I had a girlfriend, I would be gentle and show her leadership and entertain her. But sometimes I would fawn on her like a child. I know most women like these gap and balance!

Third, I would fight with punks and make firm friendships like in the Japanese movie, DROP! I think a hard fight brings about a strong bond. Once in a while, it is funny to make trouble with them in the city.

I think a woman's life also has many good points and I want to live my life happily as a woman, but I think a man's life seems to be very exciting and attractive.
